

SPECIAL SESSION

JOURNAL OF THE FLORIDA SENATE

At a Special Session of the Florida Legislature convened under Article III, Section 3(c)(1) of the Constitution of the State of Florida, as revised in 1968, begun and held at the Capitol, in the City of Tallahassee, in the State of Florida.

Tuesday, November 19, 1974

In pursuance of the Proclamation of Honorable Reubin O'D. Askew, Governor of the State of Florida, the Senate met in Special Session at 5:46 p.m. and was called to order by Senator Dempsey J. Barron, President of the Senate; the Secretary of the Senate, Joe Brown; the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, John D. Melton, being at their posts.

The Proclamation of the Governor convening the Legislature in Special Session was read as follows:

PROCLAMATION

TO THE HONORABLE MEMBERS OF THE FLORIDA SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

WHEREAS, the First District Court of Appeal has recently ruled in the companion cases of State ex rel. Christian v. Austin and State ex rel. Christian v. Rudd, that the Grand Jury proceedings therein were not in accordance with State law, and

WHEREAS, the Court's decision would prohibit the future assignment by the Governor of a State Attorney to investigate and prosecute a specific matter in another circuit without the disqualification of the resident State Attorney, and

WHEREAS, the Court's decision would prohibit the utilization by the Assigned State Attorney of his own Assistant State Attorneys in the performance of his duties within the assigned circuit, and

WHEREAS, the Court's decision also declared that it is contrary to law for Assistant State Attorneys to appear in the Grand Jury room with the State Attorney, and

WHEREAS, the effectiveness of prosecution and investigation of alleged illegal acts in this State through the assignment of State Attorneys and their Assistants would be seriously impaired by the Court's construction of Sections 27.14, 905.17 and 905.19, Florida Statutes, it is clear that the best interest of the people of the State of Florida would be promoted by convening the Legislature in Special Session to consider the enactment of legislation that will correct the deficiencies in the law found by the Court, and

WHEREAS, the Inter-American Center Authority failed to receive any bids on its bond issue on September 1974, and

WHEREAS, the Inter-American Center Authority has in excess of six million dollars in debts coming due prior to January 1, 1975, including five million dollars of bond anticipation notes, and

WHEREAS, to continue the use of the lands for public purposes, it is clear that the best interest of the people of the State of Florida would be promoted by convening the Legislature in Special Session to consider the present situation surrounding Interama.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, REUBIN O'D. ASKEW, Governor of Florida, in obedience to my constitutional duty and by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by Section 3, Article III, Florida Constitution, do hereby proclaim as follows:

1. That the Legislature in the State of Florida is convened in Special Session pursuant to Section 3(c), Article III, Florida Constitution, at the Capitol, Tallahassee, Florida, on November 19, 1974, for a period of one day.

2. That the Legislature is convened for the sole purpose of considering legislation that will:

(a) clarify the law construed by the Florida First District Court of Appeal in the companion cases of State ex rel. Christian v. Austin and State ex rel. Christian v. Rudd, decided

November 5, 1974, concerning the assignment by the Governor of State Attorneys to another circuit and those persons authorized to attend Grand Jury sessions, and

(b) abolish the Inter-American Center Authority created in Chapter 554, Florida Statutes; provide for the transfer of the title to its lands to the State of Florida Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund; provide for successor agencies and the disposition and settlement of its debts.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed at the Capitol, Tallahassee, Florida, this 15th day of November, 1974.

REUBIN O'D. ASKEW
Governor

Prayer by the Senate Chaplain:

We bring to you, our God, the cumulative knowledge and experience of this group of senators, seeking your blessing upon them. May they know however that wisdom exceeds knowledge and experience, even though it is brought to birth by means of them. For today's business we need wisdom more than judgment and justice more than acrimony. Grant us sensitivity to the human elements in our legislation but preserve us from emotional sentiments that prevent meaningful and effective decisions. So shall we thank you for your aid. Amen.

The Senate pledged allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

Explanation of vote

The recent decisions of the First District Court of Appeals in State ex rel. Christian v. Rudd, et al., and State ex rel. Christian v. Austin, et al., raise serious questions as to whether State Attorneys can reasonably represent the public interest in criminal cases.

The judicial determination that the Governor's appointment of Mr. Austin to conduct a specific investigation was illegal on grounds that the statute did not contemplate such singular executive assignments and that the determination that the simultaneous presence of a State Attorney and an Assistant State Attorney was deemed grounds to quash the Christian indictments both seriously impair the ability of the Governor to meet his Constitutional duty to "take care that the laws be faithfully executed." (See §1, Art. IV, Florida Constitution)

Furthermore, the decisions impair the ability of State Attorneys to properly enforce the criminal statutes by presenting evidence to grand juries through the use of assistants. The bills presented this day should be considered in order that the meaning of the law and the original intent of the legislature be made more evident to all parties.

The Legislature, in the consideration of these bills, while having no doubt as to the original intent and current meaning of the several sections of statutes affected, should be seeking to clarify the matter so as to preclude any possible further misunderstanding either by the judiciary or by the public. In order that persons reviewing such legislation in the future be cognizant of the intent of this legislation, as presented to this Special Session, November 19, 1974, we would appreciate your including this correspondence and the following intent as evidence of the meaning of the language adopted by the Legislature this day.

"Legislative Intent.—It is, and has been, the intent of the Legislature that to assure proper investigation of criminal activity the Governor shall have sufficient authority to assign or exchange state attorneys for single, or multiple purposes; that assistant state attorneys and investigators are to be authorized to accompany a state attorney to an assigned circuit; and that assistant state attorneys are authorized to accompany, or replace, state attorneys presenting evidence before grand juries."
